

Performance Plan

This is the plan type the school is required to adopt and implement. Schools are assigned a plan based on their overall framework score, which is a percentage of the total points they earned out of the total points eligible in each performance indicator. The overall score is then matched to the scoring guide below to determine the plan type.

Plan Assignment	Framework Points Earned
Performance	at or above 60%
Improvement	at or above 47% - below 60%
Priority Improvement	at or above 33% - below 47%
Turnaround	below 33%

Framework points are calculated using the percentage of points earned out of points eligible. For schools with data on all indicators, the total points possible are: 15 points for Academic Achievement, 35 for Academic Growth, 15 for Academic Growth Gaps, and 35 for Postsecondary and Workforce Readiness.

Performance Indicators	Rating/Plan	% of Points Earned out of Points Eligible*
Academic Achievement	Meets	68.8%	( 10.3 out of 15 points )
Academic Growth	Meets	75.0%	( 26.3 out of 35 points )
Academic Growth Gaps	Meets	66.7%	( 10 out of 15 points )
Postsecondary and Workforce Readiness	Approaching +	41.7%	( 14.6 out of 35 points )
Test Participation	95% Participation Rate Met
TOTAL		61.2%	( 61.2 out of 100 points )

* Schools may not be eligible for all possible points on an indicator due to insufficient numbers of students. In these cases, the points are removed from both the points earned and the points eligible, so scores are not negatively impacted.

** Schools do not receive points for test participation. However, schools that do not meet the 95% participation rate in two or more subject areas are assigned a plan type one category lower than their points indicate.

What do the performance indicators measure?

Academic Achievement

The Achievement Indicator reflects how a school's students are doing at meeting the state's proficiency goal: the percentage of students proficient or advanced on Colorado's standardized assessments. This Indicator includes results from CSAP and CSAPA (Reading, Writing, Math and Science), and Lectura and Escritura.

Academic Growth

The Growth Indicator measures academic progress using the Colorado Growth Model. This Indicator reflects 1) normative growth: how the academic progress of the students in this school compared to that of other students statewide with a similar CSAP score history in that subject area, and 2) adequate growth: whether this level of growth was sufficient for the typical (median) student in this school to reach an achievement level of proficient or advanced on the CSAP within three years or by 10th grade, whichever comes first.

Academic Growth Gaps

The Gaps Indicator measures the academic progress of historically disadvantaged student subgroups and students needing to catch up. It disaggregates the Growth Indicator into student subgroups, and reflects their normative and adequate growth. The subgroups include students eligible for Free/Reduced Lunch, minority students, students with disabilities (IEP status), English Language Learners, and students needing to catch up.

Postsecondary and Workforce Readiness

The Postsecondary and Workforce Readiness Indicator measures the preparedness of students for college or jobs upon completing high school. This Indicator reflects student graduation rates, dropout rates, and average Colorado ACT composite scores.

1-year vs. 3-year report

Schools receive a 1-year and a 3-year aggregated School Performance Framework report. CDE produces a report on the basis of three years of data to enable more schools to be considered within the same performance framework. Some small schools may not have public data on the basis of a single year because of small N counts for some performance indicator metrics, but a report on the basis of three years of data increases the N count.

Only one of the two sets of results (1-year or 3-year) is the one that will be the official plan type assignment for the school: the one under which the school has ratings on a higher number of the performance indicators, or, if it has ratings for an equal number of indicators, the one under which it received a higher total number of points. Note that some 3-year reports may be based on only two years of data if that is the only data available. The years of data included in a report are indicated on page 1.

+ This rating for postsecondary readiness reflects the school's data as presented to the Colorado Department of Education by the authorizing district, the Charter School Institute. The Colorado Springs Early Colleges appealed for a change to their school's postsecondary rating on their school performance framework report on the grounds that its graduation and dropout rates are inaccurate due to data incorrectly submitted by the Institute. Specifically, the school claims that 31 students who were coded as dropouts should not have been, and had they been correctly coded, the school's graduation and dropout rate would have risen to levels that met state expectations. The school requested a review of this information even though it does not impact the school's final plan type assignment (Performance Plan).

Although CDE cannot verify all of the discrepancies, a review of the data confirms that there were, indeed, errors in the end-of-year data submitted by the Charter School Institute. The Institute missed several reporting deadlines and provided CDE with data that contained significant errors or omissions.

The department offers all districts with an annual opportunity to review and certify their submitted data. This process, the student end-of-year data collection, spans a six month period during which districts review student level data provided by the State, check and correct errors, then approve the data submitted to the state. This data is then validated by CDE, and once final, it is used to calculate important data such as graduation and dropout rates. This data is the basis for ratings used on the district and school performance frameworks, and it is also reported to federal, state and local constituents for various purposes.

As a result, CDE cannot change historical data that has already been reported. It is critical to the department's data integrity that all administrative rules for data reporting and certification be carefully followed, and that all districts recognize the importance of submitting accurate data to the department. Thus, CDE has not changed the postsecondary readiness rating for this school. However, it is important for users of this school performance framework report to recognize that the postsecondary readiness indicator reflects inaccurate data.
